Dear Parents/Carers,

We have had a celebratory week here in school!

Firstly, Mr Butress from the London Children's Flower Society came in to judge our wonderful daffodils. He was amazed by how much care and attention had been taken over nurturing them. He did say though that there seemed to be less than in previous years, so please, this time next year, return your bloom!

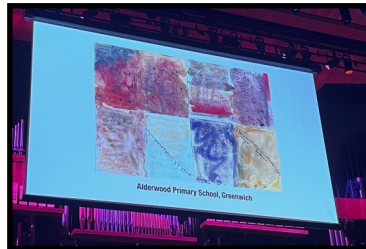

Elm and Maple Classes had a fantastic day when they visited the Royal Festival Hall this week. They went to see the London Sinfonietta and enjoyed a concert that was composed through artwork produced by children.

We are delighted to share with everyone that Lenny's piece of art was chosen by the orchestra and they composed a piece of Music to represent his interpretation of Autumn. We watched the video of his piece being introduced and played today in assembly. Well done Lenny!

We must remind parents that it is incredibly dangerous to stop on the zigzag markings by our Key Stage 2 gate and allow children to jump out of the passenger door of the car. Cyclists and motorbikes could be travelling along the inside of the road. Please find a parking space to stop safely!

Oak Class are getting ready for their residential trip in a couple of week's time. They are incredibly excited and we know they will uphold our school expectations.

Attendance remains a high priority for us here at Alderwood. It is vitally important that children are in school every day unless there is a significant health issue. This is because regular attendance supports children to reach their potential, make and keep friendships and build relationships with staff.

Please note that we have Comic Relief next week on Friday 17th March and we will be supporting this worthwhile cause by wearing red. Please note that the usual school jumper is red! No need to purchase anything special! There will be buckets on the school gates if you wish to donate.

Our wonderful APA are holding an Easter Egg Hunt on the last day of term in our Nature Area. Look out for further information!

Finally, we would like to invite you all to our Spring Concert here in school on Friday 31st March at 11am. As you may remember, we will no longer be visiting Holy Trinity Church at Easter but instead are holding a concert to celebrate all things Spring! Hope you can join us.

Have a good weekend,

Mrs Cutajar
